

Group Chief Executive The Hyde Group

Based London

Significant six figure package to attract the best.

The Hyde group is an innovative, forward looking organisation; one of the largest social housing businesses in the UK. We provide affordable homes and quality services for over 75,000 people across London and the south. We have assets worth over £2 billion and an annual income of £110 million. We work in some of the most challenging neighbourhoods and have a reputation for innovation and successful regeneration contributing powerfully to meeting housing needs and improving quality of life.

We now require a new Group Chief Executive to build on our successes and to ensure that we remain “fit for purpose” for the future. This will mean helping to develop our strategic direction and strategy for growth whilst maintaining financial stability and service excellence to meet our social purpose.

The ideal candidate must demonstrate the following:

- Excellent leadership skills for working at a strategic level within a large complex service focussed business.
- Well developed interpersonal and communication skills for influencing change and leading innovative solutions for a diverse range of customers whilst maintaining a cohesive organisation.
- The ability to link strategy to policy whilst identifying the impact on the business.
- Commercial acumen to lead negotiations for future mergers and acquisitions and significant business transactions.
- Demonstrable knowledge and/or experience of one or more of the following: housing management, property development, regeneration or sustainable communities combined with relevant financial and people management experience for working at board level.

- A performance orientated and customer focussed individual with the ability to ensure that the organisation is fit for purpose, efficient and effective.
