HARVEY NASH U.S. NAMES VP TECHNOLOGY SOLUTIONS

Anna Frazzetto to Lead U.S. Sales Efforts in IT Solutions Practice

Parsippany, New Jersey (June 1, 2005) – Harvey Nash Group Plc (www.harveynash.com), a global professional recruitment and search solutions firm, today announced that Anna Frazzetto joined the firm as Vice President of Technology Solutions. From the Connecticut office, Frazzetto will develop processes and tools to sell IT solutions and expand Harvey Nash’s capabilities throughout North America.

“Anna is an expert in IT managed services and outsourcing. Her experience and extensive network will infuse energy and focus into our aggressive efforts to expand the IT Solutions business,” said Harvey Nash President of U.S. Operations Robert J. Miano.

Most recently at Spherion Technology, Frazzetto was responsible for growing the Managed Services business unit from $30 million to $120 million. She began her career as a systems engineer at IBM and moved into quality assurance for software development at Syncsort. For MHT Software, she had operational responsibility for software development, capacity planning and production support. And for several years, Frazzetto worked at Comdisco Computing Services where she developed and implemented remote computing service and initiated a help desk practice.

Frazzetto is a sought-after industry speaker and regular guest at Help Desk Institute (HDI) and Support Services Conferences. She was recently selected as a member of the HDI Standards Committee, a group of IT leaders and subject matter experts that reviews and establishes new industry certification standards for technology support professionals. Frazzetto also is affiliated with the following industry organizations: Support Services, Xephon and The Gartner Group.
