HARVEY NASH GROUP APPOINTS ROBERT MIANO U.S. PRESIDENT

Miano to Expedite U.S. Growth Plans for Global Recruitment Company

Parsippany, NJ (December 9, 2004) – Harvey Nash Group Plc (www.harveynash.com), a global leader in professional recruitment and search solutions, today announced that Robert J. Miano joined the company as president of the organization's U.S. operations. Miano, an experienced executive with a proven record of growth and success, will lead the company's expansion in the U.S. market.

With strongholds in Europe and Asia, Harvey Nash is publicly traded on the London Stock Exchange under the symbol (HVN).

"Robert understands the importance of leadership," said David Higgins, Harvey Nash Chief Executive Officer. "He is a respected executive, strong communicator and a successful leader himself. He knows our industry and has keen insight on the human element of business operations."

Formerly president of Spherion Technology Solutions Group, one of the most profitable business units of Spherion, Miano began his career with IBM. He has also served as president for Manufacturers Hanover Corporation and Comdisco Computing Services.
