Announcing The 50 Most Influential Women in UK Technology

Computer Weekly's annual event dedicated to diversity in technology takes place on 4th October 2017, this year in partnership with Mortimer Spinks.

Join us for an afternoon of high-profile speakers and interactive workshops, designed to help you develop a more diverse technology workforce. We will also announce who has been voted as the most influential woman in UK technology for this year. Who will succeed last year's winner, BBC presenter and TeenTech CEO Maggie Philbin?

Full details and the speaker line-up are being finalised now, so please save the date in your diary. You can apply to pre-register here.
